

Sky Petunias In The News!

'Fine Gardening' Magazine Selects Headlinerâ„¢ Electric Purple Sky as 'Cool New Annual' for 2021.

In its May 2021 issue, Fine Gardening magazine has called out our own Petunia Headliner™ Electric Purple Sky as a "cool new annual" for 2021.

In the article titled 3 Cool New Annuals Worth Checking Out, the editor Danielle Sherry writes: "The blossom of this little beauty looks like it belongs in Neil deGrasse Tyson's latest television show on far-off galaxies." We're thrilled they find it a petunia that's out of this world!

Fine Gardening has a print circulation of 82,000 and a digital reach of 1.8m unique visitors per month during peak gardening season. It reaches deeply engaged gardeners across many channels with informative, useful content and best practices to help readers succeed.
